

Bushey Heath Primary School

School Equality Scheme

A vibrant school inspiring children to realise their potential

1 Vision and Values

Our equality vision and the values that underpin school life

Our equality vision and the values that underpin school life at Bushey Heath Primary School

At Bushey Heath Primary School, we aim to create an environment for learning which will encourage all children to achieve the highest standards through the provision of a broad, balanced and imaginative curriculum, high expectations, praise for a task well done and through committed, enthusiastic and effective teaching.

We will work hard to help children to develop into confident, responsible and caring adults through clearly articulated parameters and in an atmosphere of tolerance and mutual respect.

We will promote the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of pupils at the school and in society, and prepare pupils at the school for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life.

To achieve this we will take account of the following guiding principles:

Principle 1: All learners are of equal value

We see all learners and potential learners, and their parents and carers, as of equal value and will not discriminate on:

What are protected characteristics?

It is against the law to discriminate against someone because of:

- age
- disability
- gender reassignment
- marriage and civil partnership
- pregnancy and maternity
- race
- religion or belief
- sex
- sexual orientation

These are called protected characteristics.

You are protected under the Equality Act 20

Principle 2: We recognise and respect difference

Treating people equally (Principle 1 above) does not necessarily involve treating them all the same. Our policies, procedures and activities must not discriminate but must nevertheless take account of differences of life-experience, outlook and background, and in the kinds of barrier and disadvantage which people may face, in relation to:

- Disability, so that reasonable adjustments are made.
- Ethnicity, so that different cultural backgrounds and experiences of prejudice are recognized.
- Gender, so that the different needs and experiences of girls and boys, and women and men, are recognized.
- Religion, belief or faith background.
- Sexual identity.

Principle 3: We foster positive attitudes and relationships, and a shared sense of cohesion and belonging

We intend that our policies, procedures and activities should promote:

- Positive attitudes towards disabled people, good relations between disabled and non-disabled people, and an absence of harassment of disabled people
- Positive interaction, good relations and dialogue between groups and communities different from each other in terms of ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status, and an absence of prejudice-related bullying and incidents
- Mutual respect and good relations between boys and girls, and women and men, and an absence of sexual and homophobic harassment.

Principle 4: We observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development

We ensure that policies and procedures should benefit all employees and potential employees, for example in recruitment and promotion, and in continuing professional development:

- Whether or not they are disabled.
- Whatever their ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status.
- Whatever their gender and sexual identity, and with full respect for legal rights relating to pregnancy and maternity.

Principle 5: We aim to reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist

In addition to avoiding or minimising possible negative impacts of our policies, we take opportunities to maximise positive impacts by reducing and removing inequalities and barriers that may already exist between:

- Disabled and non-disabled people.
- People of different ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds.
- Girls and boys, women and men.

Principle 6: Society as a whole should benefit

We intend that our policies and activities should benefit society as a whole, both locally and nationally, by fostering greater social cohesion, and greater participation in public life of:

- Disabled people as well as non-disabled.
- People of a wide range of ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds.
- Both women and men, girls and boys.
- Homosexual and bisexual people as well as straight.

Principle 7: We base our practices on sound evidence

We maintain and publish quantitative and qualitative information showing our compliance with the public sector equality duty (PSED) set out in clause 149 of the Equality Act 2010.

Principle 8: Objectives

We formulate and publish specific and measurable objectives, based on the evidence we have collected and published (principle 8) and the engagement in which we have been involved (principle 7). The objectives which we identify take into account national and local priorities and issues, as appropriate. We keep our equality objectives under review and report annually on progress towards achieving them.

3: Legal Background

The duties that underpin our scheme

Our school is committed to meeting its public sector statutory duties as detailed below. We understand that the duties apply to service delivery and employment and staff management as well as policy development and implementation.

General Duty under the Equality Act 2010:

The purpose of this policy is to set out how our practice and policies have due regard to the need to:

- eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under this Act.
- advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it
- foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

The Specific Duties of the Act enable schools to meet their obligations under the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED)

The specific duties require schools to:

- Publish annually information quantitative and qualitative, showing compliance with the public sector equality duty (PSED) set out in clause 149 of the Equality Act 2010.
- To set every four years one or more specific measurable equality objectives that further the aims of the equality duty.

Protected Characteristics

The Equality Act 2010 protects pupils from discrimination and harassment based on protected characteristics. The protected characteristics for school provisions are:

- Age (for staff only).
- Disability.
- Ethnicity and race.
- Gender (sex).
- Gender identity and reassignment.
- Pregnancy, maternity and breast feeding.
- Religion and belief.

Disability

At Bushey Heath Primary School we implement accessibility plans which are aimed at:

- Increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the curriculum.
- Improving the physical environment of schools to enable disabled pupils to take better advantage of education, benefits, facilities and services provided.
- Improving the availability of accessible information to disabled pupils.

Community Cohesion

Community Cohesion supports good practice in educating pupils/students about equality and diversity. It contributes to the school's efforts to provide a broad, balanced curriculum.

Bushey Heath Primary School is committed to taking action on equality and we work hard to meet the duty to promote community cohesion. We will increase our focus on helping children and young people to learn to understand others, to value diversity whilst also promoting shared values, to promote awareness of human rights and to apply and defend them, and to develop the skills of participation and responsible action.

We are committed to following DCSF guidance in providing:

- Teaching and curriculum provision that supports high standards of attainment, promotes common values, and builds pupils' understanding of the diversity that surrounds them.
- Lessons across the curriculum that promote common values and help pupils to value differences and challenge prejudice and stereotyping.
- A programme of curriculum-based activities whereby pupils' understanding of community and diversity is enriched through fieldwork, visits and meetings with members of different communities.
- Support for pupils for whom English is an additional language to enable them to achieve at the highest possible level in English.

4: Roles and Responsibilities and Publish Information

Commitment to implementation: Commitment to action: Chain of accountability

The Board of Governors, supported by the Headteacher and staff, is responsible for ensuring the implementation of this scheme.

Commitment to implementation

The Headteacher retains overall responsibility for ensuring that the action plan is delivered effectively.

Every 12 months, managers and key staff will report to the Headteacher on actions and progress.

Every 12 months there will be a report on equality and diversity to the Governors meeting.

All staff are responsible for delivering the scheme both as employees and as it relates to their area of work.

Commitment to review

The school equality scheme will be aligned with the School Development Plan. Its implementation will be monitored within the school's self-evaluation and other review processes as well as being updated at least annually. Following this regular impact assessment, the whole equality scheme will be reviewed at least every four years.

The basic principle underlying the new specific duties is that of 'transparency' which ensures that we fulfil the aims of the Equality Duty to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between different groups. Transparency means being open about the information on which we base our decisions, on what to publish and how.

Commitment to publish information annually and provide access to our equality scheme

Bushey Heath Primary School is committed to sharing information about our equality scheme as broadly as appropriate. To this end, we will publish information annually and copies of this document and any related material will be available on the school website. All enquiries relating to the scheme should be made via the school office.

Commitment to action

Governors will:

- Provide leadership and drive for the development and regular review of the school's equality and other policies.
- Provide leadership and ensure the accountability of the Headteacher and senior staff for the communication and implementation of school policies.
- Highlight good practice and promote it throughout the school and wider community.
- Provide appropriate role models for all managers, staff and pupils.
- Congratulate examples of good practice from the school and among individual managers, staff and pupils.
- Ensure a consistent response to incidents, e.g. bullying cases and racist incidents.
- Ensure that the school carries out the letter and the spirit of the statutory duties (and ensuring the provision of 'returns' to the local authority).

Head teachers and senior staff will:

- Initiate and oversee the development and regular review of equality policies and procedures.
- Consult pupils, staff and stakeholders in the development and review of the policies.
- Ensure the effective communication of the policies to all pupils, staff and stakeholders.
- Ensure that managers and staff are trained as necessary to carry out the policies.
- Oversee the effective implementation of the policies.
- Hold line managers accountable for effective policy implementation.
- Provide appropriate role models for all managers, staff and pupils.
- Highlight good practice from departments, individual managers, staff and pupils.
- Provide mechanisms for the sharing of good practice.
- Ensure a consistent response to incidents, e.g. bullying cases and racist incidents.
- Ensure that the school carries out its statutory duties effectively.

All staff: teaching and non-teaching will:

- Contribute to consultations and reviews.
- Raise issues with line managers which could contribute to policy review and development.
- Maintain awareness of the school's current equality policy and procedures.
- Implement the policy as it applies to staff and pupils.
- Behave with respect and fairness to all colleagues and pupils, carrying out the letter and spirit of the school's equality scheme.
- Provide a consistent response to incidents, e.g. bullying cases and racist incidents.
- Contribute to the implementation of the school's equality scheme.

All Pupils/students will:

- Respect everyone in the school.
- Try to be friends with everyone.
- Listen to their teacher and each other.

All Parents/carers will:

- Support the school's commitment to equality.

5: Engagement

Involving our learners, parents/carers and others

The interests of all stakeholders of Bushey Heath Primary School have been taken into account and incorporated into this scheme in accordance with all statutory duties and legislative requirements.

As part of a continually developing process, the senior management team and Governing Body of Bushey Heath Primary School encourages its stakeholders to provide input and feedback at any time. We welcome the participation and involvement of people from broad and diverse backgrounds and of different abilities.

In accordance with Bushey Heath Primary School's commitment to the ongoing monitoring, development and enactment of this scheme, all comments and suggestions relating to the Equality and Diversity scheme will be considered during the annual review of this document, or on an ad hoc basis, whichever is appropriate.

Parents and pupils are asked for their comments through head teacher and governor newsletters.

Events at school (e.g. assemblies, harvest festival, visitors), school trips, (e.g. to local synagogues and churches), explore different cultures and promotes understanding of different religions; such trips and events are published in the school newsletters.

Any queries or comments relating to this scheme should be made via the school office.

When deciding what to do to tackle equality issues, we will consult and engage both with people affected by our decisions - parents, pupils, staff, members of the local community – and with people who have special knowledge which can inform the school's approach, such as disability equality groups and other relevant special interest organisations.

Evidence of this engagement will be included in the published material showing how the duty has been addressed.

6: Using information – Equality Impact Assessment, Data and Other Information

Evaluating the impact in terms of the outcomes

Equality Impact Assessment (EQIAs)

EQIAs help us to ensure that there is no unlawful discrimination against certain individuals or groups and that the positive duties are promoted. It is a way to ensure we meet diverse needs of our pupils/students and staff and that diversity, equality and inclusion run through all areas of school life.

At the time of review of individual school policies, an assessment will be made of the effectiveness of each policy in relation to equality and diversity, and any improvements or amendments will be made accordingly.

The effectiveness of Bushey Heath Primary School's equality and diversity scheme, and any initiatives that arise from it, will be consistently monitored by staff, the senior management team and the Governing Body, and the scheme and resulting actions will be developed accordingly.

7: Our School's Equality Objectives 2020-2021

Key priorities for action

All children will understand the protected characteristics by the end of KS2, as evidenced by pupil surveys.

Consideration is given for disability access during adaptations to school site. For example:

- Digital hub planning.
- Wheelchair access around the school.
- Disabled toilet and adaptation of standard toilet facilities.
- Sound system in every classroom.

Equality aspects are incorporated in the rolling review of school policies as a standing item.

School data, both summative and formative, is used to ensure all children are closely monitored and appropriate support is in place. Assessment, Progress Reviews, Intervention Programs, observations, parent feedback, governor input all ensure that the school proactively, and successfully, address barriers or disadvantages that pupils might face.

The success of this policy can be seen in the outcomes of pupil, parental feedback, observations during their time at school and rapid progress (both social and academic) of pupils with protected characteristics.

Where differences in boys' and girls' achievement are identified the school takes steps to close the gaps. For example, boys' attainment in EYFS and KS1 was lower in 2017. However, Boys' achievement is now in line with girls and above Herts and National.

By encouraging girls to take more interest in the STEAM subject, for example attending Girls Grammar Science Day, we have seen it create confidence and involvement in these subjects by girls (evidenced through survey outcomes) by introducing an engineering unit in our science curriculum, we open up the subject to all.

To ensure cultural events are celebrated throughout the year the school has:

- An assembly rota to reflect key cultural events for all the main religions and none.
- Ensures that assemblies sign songs that celebrate faith and none.
- Ensure the RE curriculum reflects a balance approach to the major religions.
- Held an 'International day' to engage and celebrate the different cultures and nationalities within our school.

All accusations of discrimination, verbal / physical abuse or bullying based on protected characteristics are recorded on the school's Child Protection Management System. This is then reported to the FGB meeting.

Anti-Bullying Toolkit ensures the school is alert to challenging the development of an environment which is hurtful and threatening to particular groups or communities for example, casual use of homophobic, sexist or racist language. All incidents are recorded on an investigation form.

In 2019-2020:

- Five incidents of racism.
- One incident of homophobia.
- Zero gender discrimination.
